Are you fulfilling your SAFEGUARDING duties?

To meet Government requirements in safeguarding we have created a new suite of qualifications for staff, learners and volunteers working in a wide range of settings. They cover the following areas: British Values & Citizenship and Prevent; safeguarding in a working environment; children and young people; health and wellbeing; and digital safety.

17 different qualifications in HEALTH AND WELLBEING

Taking care of people's health and wellbeing is so important. Our new suite of 17 qualifications at Level 1 are designed not just to provide useful knowledge and skills related to the workplace, but also for personal growth. The certificates and awards range from general awareness of health and wellbeing to specific areas such as personal safety, emotional resilience, sleep, social media and nutrition. Read more.

How to keep a learning log

In our last centre survey lots of you asked for more help with assessment. So we are producing a set of 'How to ..' articles with tips and advice to help the organisations we work with. This is the first in a series of short articles that we hope will make your job a lot easier. Read more.

Ideas for spending your unused Adult Education Budget

We have a range of short courses you can offer NOW and complete before the end of the financial year.

They include small credit units in social media, leadership, safeguarding and coping with exams – some with assessment materials. Don't miss out.
